

BAN

06/01/10 Iran bans a number of international broadcasters including BBC, Radio Farda and Voice of America.

11/03/10 The Information and Broadcasting Ministry bans Fashion TV (FTV) for 10 days starting from 7 pm on March 12, 2010.

29/07/10 Amul Macho undergarments barred from showing it on TV by the Indian Broadcasting Foundation (IBF).

10/08/10 Pakistan's leading TV news channel Geo TV banned for broadcasting the defamatory news of President Asif Ali Zardari.

17/11/10 The government decided to ban SS Music, a multi-lingual music channel, for seven days for allegedly showing nudity.

07/01/08: Pakistan's Supreme Court ordered Sindh High Court to give its decision within a month's time on GEO TV's PIL filed against the ban imposed on the channel.

13/02/08: 'TV ad unfair to girl child': The Delhi government has objected to a TV commercial of ING Vysya Life Insurance which depicts girls as a burden on their families.

17/03/08: The Central Government issued a notification banning surrogate advertising of liquor companies in print, electronic and outdoor media.

02/04/08: Cable TV operators in Tamil Nadu decided to black out Kannada Satellite TV channels in retaliation to the Kannada cable TV operators decision to ban Tamil Channels.

05/04/08: Afghanistan government banned popular Indian soap operas from 15th April.

23/04/08: Srinagar Deputy Commissioner Sheikh Aziz said that under the Cable Act, 1995,

Pakistani Channels-Geo, PTV, ARY and AAJ are not permitted as they are not registered.

07/05/08: The Srinagar district magistrate banned the PTV News with immediate effect.

Go to Top

17/05/08: The I&B Ministry asked TV channels to pull off air Lux Cozy and Frenchie X underwear ads as objectionable.

10/06/08: The government found Lux Cozy undergarments advertisement featuring "Semi-clad male and females models and a dog" indecent, vulgar and suggestive. It has been banned with immediate effect.

03/08/08: The Jammu administration blacked out two local TV News Channels and sealed the offices of two Hindi dailies for allegedly whipping up communal passions.

22/08/08: I&B Ministry observed that the theme of advertisement of "Axe Dark Temptation Deodorant" are indecent, vulgar and repulsive and should be axed by TV Channels.

26/11/08: Central Government banned the telecast of cartoon serial Shin Chan with immediate effects.

04/10/08: The J&K government put a ban on the transmission of cable TV Channel Sen TV.

08/10/08: Cabinet imposed ban on exit poll telecast & publication during the elections.

06/11/08: The Election Commission made it clear that the medium of radio and SMS are banned for the purpose of poll campaign.

REVOKED

20/01/08: The ban imposed on the Geo channel was lifted by the president of Pakistan,

Pervez Musharraf.

02/09/08: The J&K Government lifted the nine-day ban on local television channels after the operators gave an undertaking that they will abide by the regulations of Cable Television Act.

13/05/08: PTV news is back on air in the Kashmir Valley whereas the three other Pak channels are still off.